At the Local Theaters.

There will be "something doing" at the local playhouses this week. At English's to-night Henry Miller will open an engagement in "D'Arcy of the Guards," to be followed later in the week by Tim Murphy in "A Capitol Comedy.

The vaudeville bill at the Grand this Toulousians." The rest of the bill is said to be first-class.

"The Devil's Daughter" will open at the Empire to-night for three days. The latter part of the week will see Reilly & Woods's show, always a good entertainment. The Park will have two shows this week. This afternoon "Mam'selle 'Awkins," which was seen at English's last season will open for three days. It is a musical comedy and the company is a large one. "A Run on the Bank" will follow.

Notes of the Stage.

The Rogers brothers' dates at English's are Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Feb. 25 and 26. They and their company will present John J. McNally's vaudeville farce, "The Rogers Brothers in Washington."

time tragedians that, in every city in which he played, he would say in his curtainspeech that he and his wife were so fond of the city that they had resolved to make it their home when they retired. Joseph Jefferson tells a similar sthory about "Billy" Florence, Mr. Jefferson and Mr. Florence were acting together. Mr. Florence loved to be called before the curtain to make a speech. One night in a Connecticut city he said: "Ladies and gentlemen: It is to you that I owe all of the success I have attained in my profession. It was the early encouragement I received here that prompted me to go on with my professional work. I was here a boy; I know you all; I recognize you all; we knew each other and can never forget the kindness that has heen showered upon me by the people of Hartford." A man in the audience shouted: "This is New Haven, Mr. Florence."

An incident in Williamsburg, near New York city, the other day served to illustrate the difference that sometimes exists between "vaudeville" and "variety." It is usual in the larger cities to "strengthen" a traveling variety or vaudeville company by adding to it a "feature act" engaged by the management of the theater. Sam Devere's company was playing at the Gaiety Theater in Williamsburg, and Lillian Burkhart, a prominent vaudeville actress, was one of the worst offenders on the score of logue preceded Miss Burkhart's sketch on pose, claiming the arrested officials to be will be one of the grandest ever given in the bill, and she was behind the "drop" superintending the setting of the stage. Scraps of Devere's songs and stories peneimpressed with the fact that it was hardly the sort of thing to leave an audience in the proper frame of mind for her playlet. She called the manager's attention to the exactly his sort of goods and he would not reform for Miss Burkhart or any other person. It was finally arranged that Deinstead of preceding it.

A Medicine for Old People.

Rev. Geo. Gay, Greenwich, Kas., is past 83 years of age, yet he says: "I am enjoying excellent health for a man of my age, due entirely to the rejuven-ating influences of Dr. Miles' Nervine. It brings sleep and rest when nothing else will, and gives strength and vitality even to one of my old age."

"I am an old soldier," writes Mr. Geo. Watson, of Newton, Ia., "and I have been a great sufferer from nervousness, vertigo and spinal trouble. Have spent considerable money for medicine and doctors, but with little benefit. I was so bad my mind showed signs of weak-ness. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I know it saved my life."

YOUNG ROOSEVELT IS NOT IN AN ALARMING CONDITION.

Greets His Father Joyfully on the Lat ter's Arrival from Washington-His Return Is Indefinite.

GROTON, Mass., Feb. 9.-President Roosevelt, on his arrival at the Groton School this afternoon, did not find his son Theodore, jr., alarmingly ill with pneumonia, but the boy's condition was not sufficiently reassuring to warrant the President's immediate return to the national capital. Young Roosevelt, with two schoolmates-Horace B. Potter, of New York, and William Gammel, of Providence, both having pneumonia-lie in large airy rooms on the second floor of the college infirmary. Mrs. Roosevelt has been with her son for two days. He greeted his father cheerily

To-night it was stated that his condition is unchanged and that he is holding his own well. The school has been dismissed and the 150 boys have scattered to their homes upon an enforced vacation.

All the sick boys are having the best medical attention and nursing. The President's stay here in indefinite, although it is not believed it will be prolonged much after Wednesday, unless the boy's condition takes a turn for the worse. Pneumonia being always alarming, the President has thought it well to stay here until he has some assurance of his son's recovery.

The President arrived at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon after an uneventful trip of fourteen hours from Washington. He came on the private car Rambler, arriving in Jersey City soon after 7 a. m. The car was immediately transferred by boat across Harlem and left Motthaven as a special train at 8:20. A stop was made at New Haven, where a dispatch was handed to the President stating that the boy's condition was encouraging. No other stops were made until Providence was reached, where there was a slight delay on account of an accident to the engine. The train pulled into was immediately hauled out and around the city through Cambridge to the Grand Junc-PARK .- "Mam'selle 'Awkins," 2 and 8 tion station of the Boston & Maine Railroad. The run from Boston to Ayer Junction was made in a little over forty minutes, and there the car was transferred to the Worcester, Nashua & Rochester division of this road, the train arriving in

Mrs. Roosevelt was at the window as the President drove past into the yard, and greeted him as he mounted the stairs. The two immediately went to the sick boy's room, and the President was delighted to find that his son's head was very clear and that he was overjoyed to see his father. The President did not remain long, however, although he spent several hours in the office on the ground floor. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt, together with Secretary Cortelyou, are being entertained at the house of William Amory Gardner, brother-in-law of Mrs John L. MANILA, Feb. 9 .- The Governor of the town of Cagayan, in the province of Misamis, Island of Mindanao, has resigned claiming that the military authorities there do not recognize his authority in refusing to receive his writs of habeas corpus. Some months ago some of the leading officials of Misamis province were arrested because they tendered a banquet to an insurgent colonel and because it was proved they also had contributed funds to the insurgent cause. At that time Gen. George W. Davis, commanding at Zamboanga, Island of Mindanao, requested that the province be transferred from civil to military control. > Pamphlets from Hong-Kong Junta. MANILA, Feb. 9.-The provinces under civil rule, as well as Manila, have been flooded with a quantity of pamphlets printed in Hong-Kong by the Filipino junta. These pamphlets are copies of a memorial by the junta, which has been forwarded to President Roosevelt. The memorial expresses sympathy at the death of Mr. Mc-Kinley and assures the American people that sooner or later the Filipinos are bound to have independence. The junta says it has reliable information that most of the pacified provinces are only held in check by superior military forces. The pamphlets say that the educated Filipinos appreciate American governmental ideas, but when the bread of national life is asked for it does not suffice to offer a stone, even though that stone be a diamond.
